Description:

Eagle Creek Lodge is a self-sufficient upscale residence/lodge located in picturesque Chaikin Cove twenty-five miles northwest of Ketchikan, Alaska. Built in 1997, the lodge sits on a 3.5 acre oceanfront tract, with 5,000 square feet of living space, basement, storage areas and large kitchen. The lodge also enjoys a detached two bedroom quest cabin; detached shop building with watchman's quarters. Large dock allows for larger boats and float planes. A fishing, crabbing and shrimping paradise!
